Chapter 1 by CaiteCat

In her house Molly and her parents were on Molly's bed. There was lightning and thunder outside. Molly was afraid of thunder. She was scared of the loud sounds it made. Molly's parents were reading her a book. She wasn't listening to the book. She was listening to the loud sounds of thunder. She jumped every time she heard it. Her mom and dad were hugging her tight. The thunder stopped and her parents left to go get food. They came back in Molly's room and gave her a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. Molly ate the sandwich then she went to bed.

Molly woke up and called for her mom. Her mom didn't answer. She went to her parents room and her parents weren't in their room. She went to look all around her house and couldn't find her parents. She got her phone out and called her mom. Her mom didn't answer. Then Molly tried to call her dad. Her dad didn't answer. Then Molly heard the door to her house open. She yelled mom really loud and all she heard was take all the stuff and put it in the van. Then she heard also take the body's and put them in the van also.

Molly was so scared. Even more scared then she is when she hears thunder. She went in her super secret hiding spot. 20 minutes later she heard the people leave they never found her. She ran downstairs and looked in the closet she saw lots of blood. She got her phone and called her best friend Randy. She told him everything that happened. He told her he would be right over.

She heard the door bell and it was Randy. She showed him the blood then she went upstairs and when she came back down she saw a window and saw Randy running home.

Molly jumped and screamed.

"Are you ok Molly?" Molly's mom asked.

"Was that real?" Said Molly freaked out.

"No sweetie it was just a day dream." Replied her father.

Molly started to cry and her parents hugged her tight. The thunder was over. Molly went to bed with her parents by her side. Then Molly woke up the next morning with her parents next to her. She was happy and hugged her parents and they woke up. Molly and her family went out to breakfast they had a great time.
